THREE RULES BEFORE YOU cancel ANYTHING

*1Replace, don't add.

A new tool only saves money if something you pay for goes away.

*2Two weeks side by side.

Run the new tool next to your old one for two weeks before you cancel.

*3Read the catch.

Platform limits, commercial rights, privacy terms and recording laws decide the swap.

tool 1 of 7...

IRISGO

the free admin assistantTest first

An AI desktop assistant. It watches you do a task once, then repeats it with new inputs. It also adds a Daily Brief and Email Triage that flags priorities and deadlines.

COSTS	Free during the public beta. Price after the beta: not announced.
CAN REPLACE	A paid AI assistant app, if you pay for one.
THE CATCH	Windows (64-bit) or Apple Silicon Mac only. It watches how you work, so read the privacy terms first.
BEST FIT	Solopreneurs who already pay for an AI assistant app and want to test a free one on admin work.

CHECK BEFORE YOU SWITCH

- ☐ Am I on Windows (64-bit) or an Apple Silicon Mac?
- ☐ Have I read the privacy terms, knowing it watches how I work?
- ☐ Would I still use it if a price is announced after the beta?

tool 2 of 7...

SUNO SPEECH

voice and music in one trackTest it

Type a script, describe the voice and the music style, and get one finished track. Launched in beta on October 1, 2026.

COSTS	Free to try. Pro is $10 a month and adds commercial rights.
CAN REPLACE	A stock music plan. Epidemic Sound Creator is $17.99 a month (monthly billing). Not a like-for-like swap.
THE CATCH	Free clips cannot be used commercially. It is a beta, so accents can drift.
BEST FIT	Creators who pay for stock music mainly to put a voice and a music bed under short videos.

CHECK BEFORE YOU SWITCH

- ☐ Do I need commercial use? Then I need a paid plan.
- ☐ Does a Suno track cover what I use my stock music library for?
- ☐ Do the accents hold up across a few of my scripts?

ELEVENLABS ELEVEN V4

Worth a testvoiceovers you can direct

Type a script, add inline tags like [laughs] or [said angrily], and it reads it back. 90+ languages. Released September 28, 2026.

COSTS	Free to try. Starter is $6 a month and includes a commercial license.
CAN REPLACE	Paying a person to record narration.
THE CATCH	Cheap AI voices are everywhere. If people follow you for your voice, keep using it.
BEST FIT	Anyone who pays for narration, or needs voiceovers in more than one language.

CHECK BEFORE YOU SWITCH

- ☐ Is my own voice part of my brand? If yes, keep it.
- ☐ Do I need the commercial license that comes with Starter?
- ☐ Does the tagged delivery sound right for my audience?

tool 4 of 7...

CLAUDE HAIKU 5.5

Builders onlyonly if you build things

Anthropic's newest small model, and its cheapest. It powers bots and automations, not a chat app. Released October 7, 2026.

COSTS	$0.10 per million input tokens, $0.50 per million output tokens, for prompts under 100,000 tokens. A token is a small chunk of text.
CAN REPLACE	Pricier models inside your own bot or automation.
THE CATCH	Prompts over 100,000 tokens cost 5 times more. If you only use a chat app, skip it.
BEST FIT	People who run their own bots, automations or apps through an API.

CHECK BEFORE YOU SWITCH

- ☐ Do I actually call a model through an API today?
- ☐ Are my prompts usually under 100,000 tokens?
- ☐ Does the smaller model still do the job on my real tasks?

BEE FRONTIER

the meeting-notes wearableCheck the law

Amazon's wristband or clip-on. It records conversations and turns them into summaries. Up to 7 days of battery. Announced October 15, 2026.

COSTS	$74.99 once, with summaries and 14 days of memory. To-dos need Bee Pro, $11.99 a month.
CAN REPLACE	A meeting-notes app. Otter Pro is $16.99 a month (monthly billing).
THE CATCH	Florida generally requires everyone to agree to be recorded. Check your state first.
BEST FIT	People who pay for a meeting-notes app and mostly need summaries.

CHECK BEFORE YOU SWITCH

- ☐ Does my state require everyone's consent to record? (Florida generally does.)
- ☐ Do I only need summaries, or do I need to-dos too (Bee Pro)?
- ☐ Is 14 days of memory enough for how I use my notes?

COSTS	$99.99.
CAN REPLACE	A separate call recorder and manual notes.
THE CATCH	Listed as coming soon, so you cannot switch to it yet.
BEST FIT	Nobody yet. Revisit it when it ships.

CHECK BEFORE YOU SWITCH

- ☐ Is it actually available to buy yet?
- ☐ Do recording-consent rules in my state allow how I would use it?
- ☐ Would it replace something I pay for, or just add a device?

- ☐ Is my product in the supported apparel list?
- ☐ Is it a new product? Existing products are not covered.
- ☐ Are 10 attempts a day enough for my launch?

the honest math...

ABOUT $45 A MONTH, NOT $500

For a creator who pays for all three apps these tools replace. The AI assistant app at $20 is an example price.

YOU PAY FOR NOW	SWITCH TO	MONTHLY SAVING
AI assistant app, $20 (example price)	IrisGo beta, $0 while it's free	$20.00
Stock music (Epidemic Sound Creator), $17.99	Suno Pro, $10	$7.99
Otter Pro, $16.99	Bee Frontier, no subscription, summaries only	$16.99
Total a month, summaries only After a one-time $74.99 for the Bee Frontier device.		$44.98 about $45

WANT TO-DOS TOO? ADD BEE PRO AT $11.99 A MONTH

The Bee saving drops to $16.99 minus $11.99 = $5.00. New total: $20 + $7.99 + $5.00 = $32.99 a month, about $33.

WHY NOT $500?

Stack every best case and you land around $435 to $450, but about $400 of that comes from two $200 scenarios that were made up as illustrations.

THE FINE PRINT

IrisGo's $0 lasts only while the beta is free; no post-beta price is published. Suno Pro is needed for commercial rights. Bee Frontier without Pro is summaries only.

Test each tool for two weeks before you cancel anything.
